THE RICHMOND RESULT.

Well Done, Good and Faithful Servants.

Now that the smoke of the conflict is over it is well to recognize and tender thanks to those who have so much contributed to bring about the good result. Richmond never had a better City Committee, and Messrs. Charles E. Wingo, J. H. O'Bannon, Tazewell Ellett, and G. W. Wilde deserve special mention for their untiring efforts. Among the ward superintendents Messrs. Louis Rawlings and James W. Gibbons deserve special mention. The Fulton Club, the Clay Ward Actives, the Old Dominion Club, the Union Club, the East-End Club, and other ward clubs did faithful service; and Myer Angle, E. M. Ruscher, J. L. Botto, and George D. Pearson were never behind when there was solid work to be done.

In Manchester a gallant fight was made, and the old burg continues in the Democratic line, standing like a stone wall. At Schumacher's Store the Tuckahoe men covered themselves with glory. To one and all who labored in and out of season for the triumph in this district can be awarded the plaudit—well done, good and faithful servants.

The Times yesterday paid its respects to the workmen, and this morning emphasizes what was said then—that they are entitled to the warmest thanks of the party and of the community.

Our Rooster.

Some hypercritical people yesterday wished to know why THE TIMES put out a rooster. The answer is easily made. It was because the Democrats have control of the House of Representatives; because Wise was elected in this district; and lastly, but not least, because Hewitt beat George and his Republican ally in New York. The last was an event of national importance, and for all of this we crow—yes, we crow!

Popularity of "The Times."

The sale of "THE TIMES" yesterday exceeded our expectations. Although we provided for a larger circulation than usual, we found it not sufficient to meet the demand, and we sent out our second edition at 9 A. M.

Fraudulent Registrations.

The following parties were before the Police Justice yesterday morning for falsely and corruptly swearing before the registrars at their respective precincts:

Lewis Wingfield (colored)—First precinct, Jefferson Ward—sent on to the grand jury.

Alex. McDonough (colored)—Second precinct, Jefferson Ward—sent on to the grand jury.

Oliver Thomas (colored)—First precinct, Marshall Ward—continued until to-day.

Willis Dabney (colored)—Fourth precinct, Jackson Ward—sent on to the grand jury.

Henry Dance (colored), charged with stealing $17 worth of clothes from A. Jacobs, was acquitted at the Police Court yesterday.

William Jackson (colored), charged with dealing the "jug," will be tried in the Police Court next week.

Pay of Supervisors.

A TIMES reporter was informed yesterday by reliable authority that the United States supervisors who served during the recent registration and election cannot possibly receive their pay before December 1888. No appropriation as yet has been made, and if by any possibility the Republicans should gain control of the next House they would probably refuse to appropriate money for the paying of extra officials appointed by the Democrats.

Important Cases in the Hustings Court.

Yesterday in the Hustings court the following cases were called and the time was fixed for the trial of the same:

The case of Mr. Peter C. Warwick and Major George A. Barksdale, known as the Gallego Mills cases, were set for trial November 15th.

The case of William H. Mullen and others, known as the boycott case, was set for a hearing on November 23d.

The gambling cases were fixed for the 8th and 10th November.

William H. Ross (colored), charged with forgery, was tried and acquitted.

Samuel Jackson (colored), was convicted of the third offence of petit larceny and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

Persons who have been indicted for violating the revenue laws, by carrying on business without a license since the first of May last, will be tried to-morrow morning in the Hustings Court. Those who wish to defend their cases must appear at that time.

For the Confederate Chapel.

The tobacco donated for the chapel fund at the Confederate Soldiers' Home will be sold to-day at 12 o'clock M. at the Tobacco Exchange. It is hoped that the attendance will be large and the bidding spirited. Let as much be raised as possible for this worthy object.

NORTHERN VISITORS.

Programme for Their Entertainment

A few days since Governor Lee received a letter from Mr. John H. Inman, a leading citizen of New York, stating that a party of distinguished New York gentlemen would be in the city this week, and bespeaking for them some civilities and courtesies. Governor Lee handed the letter to Mr. George A. Ainslie, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

The following gentlemen were delegated to do the honors on behalf of that body: George A. Ainslie (president), E. A. Catlin, N. V. Randolph, R. E. Blankenship, P. H. Mayo, Charles Watkins, Thomas N. Page, W. L. Sheppard, W. R. Trigg, and C. O. B. Cowardin.

Yesterday morning the committee met and the following were added to it: Colonel A. S. Buford, Mr. Charles D. Hill, and Captain W. M. Cary.

The following programme for their entertainment has been arranged for to-morrow: Meet at Exchange Hotel at 10 o'clock A. M., visit the Randolph-English works at 10:30, Centre Warehouse at 11, P. H. Mayo's factory at 11:30, Allen & Ginter's at 12, Tredegar Works at 1:30, Belle Isle at 3:30, and then back to the Exchange.

For Saturday be at Chesapeake and Ohio depot at 10 A. M., Tanager & Delaney Works at 11:30, at Cedar Works at 1 P. M., at Chesapeake and Ohio depot at 1:30, at Westmoreland Club from 1:30 to 3:30, and carriages to points of interest around the city the balance of the evening.

These distinguished visitors will be heartily received, and it is hoped that their visit will be pleasant to themselves and profitable to the city.

THE LITTLE SISTERS' FAIR.

A Brilliant and Attractive Scene.

The fair of the Little Sisters of the Poor at the Regimental Armory drew another large crowd last night. The music was an especial feature, and the many useful and ornamental articles were not only admired, but liberally purchased. The palatable eatables also met with a ready sale.

Below will be found a description in part of the many places to which a visit will be interesting:

On the right of the entrance is the restaurant table, under the charge of Mrs. Ney, assisted by Mrs. William Daffron, Mrs. Kirk, and others.

Then comes the Mikado booth, where the Misses Kidwell and Misses Higgins will serve the visitors with a nice cup of tea and soups.

On the south side of the hall is the table of Mrs. J. H. Chataigne, Mrs. R. E. English, Mrs. W. C. Taylor, and Mrs. Alex. Hierholzer. This table has a fine display of fancy articles, embroideries, fire-screens, and table-covers.

The flower and cigar stand is conducted by Misses Wendlinger and Richmond.

On the east side of the hall and facing the main entrance is the confectionery table, under the charge of Mrs. James Morrissey, assisted by Mrs. Ems, Mrs. James E. Phillips, Mrs. F. A. Torpie, Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Wendlinger, and Mrs. H. A. Atkinson.

In the northeast corner of the hall is the table of St. Mary's congregation, under the charge of Mrs. F. Sitterling and Mrs. Joseph H. Middendorf. These ladies have one of the largest and best displays in the room, consisting of exquisite fancy needle work, rich bronzes, beautiful hand-painted and embroidered fire-screens, table-covers, and lambrequins, besides hundreds of fancy articles of every description.

The west-end table and art gallery are under the management of Mrs. Thomas Barry, Mrs. Neagle, Mrs. O'Keefe, Mrs. Cunningham, and Mrs. Brooke.

Next comes the confectionery table of Mrs. D. Columbus, who is assisted by Mrs. Deady, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Feeney, and Mrs. Elyson.

The ladies desire to thank Mr. F. Sitterling, who at his own expense fitted up the Armory. Other acknowledgments will be made in due time.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Meeting of the Missionary Society.

A meeting of the life directors and life members of the Christian Missionary Society was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the Seventh-street Christian church, Rev. I. J. Spencer presiding, and Rev. H. C. Garrison, secretary.

After devotional exercises the report of the Board of Managers was read by Rev. L. A. Cutler, corresponding secretary.

The report was discussed by Colonel John B. Cary, Rev. Mr. Perry, and others.

Following was heard the reports of the evangelist, the treasurer, the chairman of the Colportage Board, the election of officers, and other matters of interest to the society and the Christian church.

The Missionary Society is sustaining three missions, and uses a legacy of about $7,000, besides raising from $1,200 to $1,500 per year.

Rev. Mr. Cary collected $496 and Rev. Mr. Perry $266.61, making $1,402 during the year.

The State Convention meets to-day at 10 o'clock. It will be attended by ministers and laymen from this and other States. It will be an event not only to the members of this denomination but to all Christians.

Among those present yesterday were Rev. J. Z. Tyler, the former pastor of the Seventh-street Christian church. He was warmly welcomed.

In the lecture-room the ladies of the church served an elegant dinner for the benefit of the society and for church work generally and met with a liberal patronage.

BREVITIES.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS, MINOR TOPICS, AND SMALL MATTERS.

The News of the Day Boiled Down and Served Up in Condensed Shape.

B. A. Grasberger, of Richmond, has been allowed a patent for a wheel hub.

"A Brave Woman" will be the attraction at the Mozart Academy next week.

The first colored interment was made at Mount Calvary Cemetery Tuesday.

There is a bad hole in the pavement on the northwest corner of Foushee and Marshall streets.

A young man named Grady, in West Sidney, who injured his collar-bone a few days since, is recovering.

Rev. Mr. Tyree, of the Richmond College, will officiate at the North Fourth-street chapel to-night.

The Jefferson Ward Tammany Club had a business meeting last night at their rooms near the St. Charles Hotel.

H. H. Abram, son of Ellis Abram, who broke his collar-bone at school last Monday, is progressing very favorably.

Mr. Charles E. Whitlock is building two large houses on Franklin street, adjoining Mr. Alexander Cameron's.

The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia will commence its session at Richmond to-morrow at half-past 11 o'clock A. M.

The much-travelled Ashland road from the Old to the New reservoir is in a deplorable condition even in this lovely weather.

THE TIMES is under acknowledgment to the Schuyler Electric Light Company for numerous courtesies extended Tuesday evening.

Judge L. L. Lewis, of the Court of Appeals, and Major N. H. Hotchkiss, the well-known railroad man, were in the city yesterday.

Senger Halle, since it has been refitted, is one of the neatest places in the city. The fresco work is executed in the best style of the art.

The Committee on the Improvement of James River met in the Council Chamber yesterday afternoon and transacted their regular monthly business.

Mr. James Galloway, a well-known citizen of Fulton, is dead. He was the father of Mr. Thad Galloway, of East Franklin street near Eighteenth.

William R. Hayden, an old Richmond boy, is manager for Helen Danway, the actress, and Ida Vernon, an old Marshall favorite, is her leading lady.

There has been an important change in the schedule of the York River railroad. Instead of two trains at 2:45 and 4:45 P. M., as heretofore, there is only one at 3:30 P. M.

The old Basin banked by Hall's foundry is entirely inadequate for the large traffic of that vicinity. The street should be widened at once, and regardless of cost.

Major John B. Vaughan, master carpenter of the Danville shop, formerly of Richmond, but for a number of years a resident of Manchester, has removed to Richmond.

There will be very interesting services at the Salvation Army tent to-night and to-morrow night. A silver collection will be taken up to assist in procuring a hall and fuel for the winter campaign.

Mr. Jesse Nalle and Miss Edith S. Tilghman were married yesterday morning in Philadelphia, where the bride lives. The groom was accompanied from this city by Mr. Corbin Warwick and Mr. Allen E. Donnan, the latter gentleman being best man.

Sad Death of a Well-Known Citizen.

Mr. William H. Sutherland, the well-known lively-stable keeper, died yesterday morning between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock at his residence, No. 905 East Clay street.

On the evening of the 18th of October, Mr. Sutherland, in crossing Broad street at the corner of Eighth street, stumbled over the iron rail of the temporary track leading to the City Hall lot, and fell heavily to the ground, painfully injuring one of his knees.

He suffered very much during the night, but the next morning he got up and went to his place of business. He kept up one or two days, but finally had to take his bed. He continued to grow worse Tuesday. Erysipelas developed itself, resulting in his death yesterday morning.

Mr. William Henry Sutherland was a native of Hanover county, but he has been residing in Richmond since his seventeenth year, and was engaged most of his time in the lively stable business. He was a member of Joppa Lodge of Masons, McCarthy Council Royal Arcanum, Legion of Honor, and the order of Odd Fellows.

His funeral will take place to-day at 12 o'clock at the Second Baptist church, of which he was a consistent member.

It Is a Fact that Dr. David's Cough Syrup is perfectly harmless and the most effective cure for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, etc., known. Don't take any of the "just-as-good" (so-called) cough cures offered you because they cost the seller less, but insist upon having Dr. David's Cough Syrup.

A QUIET MARRIAGE.

And a Happy Reunion of Friends of Other Days.

Yesterday evening at 2:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's brother, Police Sergeant George H. Matthews, No. 1817 Venable street, Councilman George E. Bowden and Mrs. Susan E. Strang were married.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Reed, of Trinity church, and was witnessed by only a few intimate friends of the bride and groom. An pleasant feature of the evening was the presence of three ladies who officiated as bridesmaids on the occasion of Mr. Bowden's first marriage, over a quarter of a century ago. The three others are still living, but were not present, but were represented, as were the groomsmen, most of whom are now living. All of the old bridesmaids present now have families of their own, and some of them are grandmothers. Apart from being a very quiet and pleasant wedding, it was a real reunion of old friends (among them the writer), and many happy reminiscences of possibly brighter days were recalled. After receiving congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Bowden left on the York River line at 3:30 o'clock for Baltimore and Washington.

Mr. Bowden is one of Richmond's most popular citizens. He is one of the best composers on the State newspaper, a member of the City Council from Jefferson Ward, and also a leader in a number of benevolent orders and a useful man generally. The bride is a most estimable lady, and highly esteemed by many friends.

They have the best wishes of a large circle for their long-continued happiness.

"Mardo" at the Mozart Academy of Music.

The lovers of romance will have the last chance to-day of witnessing Mr. Frank I. Frayne's historical romance "Mardo," in which startling situations and thrilling effects follow each other with remarkable rapidity. From witnessing adventure in the bush country of Australia, we are treated to a glimpse of the inside of the sacred precincts of the palace of the Czar of Russia; next we are translated to the dreary wilds of Siberia, and are given an opportunity to realize what hardships Russian convicts have to undergo, and finally we return to the palace, where the villains of the plot are denounced and the righteous rewarded and restored to their wonted position. Among the scenic effects may be mentioned the Burning of a Bridge, the Siberian Snowstorm, and the Briding of the Convict Hut, each of which is remarkably realistic. Not the least interesting feature of the play is the performance of the dog Jack, Mardo's faithful friend.

To-morrow the new "Si Slocom."

Ho! for Petersburg.

The grand Kirmess in Petersburg is said to be the finest in costume and other attractions ever given in the South. Two of our military companies—Company "C" and Richmond Light Infantry Blues—will go over this evening on a special train with their friends. Train leaves the Richmond and Petersburg depot at 7 P. M., and returning leaves Petersburg at 12:30, reaching here at 1:30, giving all a chance to see the drill, fair, &c. Tickets for round trip, including admission to the Kirmess, $1.50.

Rib Broken.

The ambulance, Dr. Rogers in charge, was called to the Old Dominion Steamship sheds at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

One of the workmen, T. G. Seay, who was making repairs on the shed, was hit by a piece of lumber in the back, and one of his ribs was broken. The only wonder is, as the plank fell a distance of nearly fifty feet, that he was not more seriously injured. He was taken to his home, 3812 Sixth street, Rocketts.

Almost a "Lifer."

Among the long-term convicts in the penitentiary is R. D. Hogan, who was convicted October 13, 1873, in the County Court of Bedford on three indictments of horse-stealing, and was sentenced to fifty-four years in each case, making a total of fifty-four years. Hogan having served thirteen years in prison is now endeavoring to get Governor Lee to pardon him. The Governor has his petition under consideration.

The Trespass Cases.

When the cases of W. C. Pond and D. A. Lacy were called yesterday in the Police Court counsel moved for a continuance until to-day, which request was granted.

Both parties were put under bond to keep the peace.

Liquor Cases Yesterday

In the Police Court yesterday J. T. Ferriter, charged with selling liquor to minors, was sent on to the grand jury. J. N. Allison, who keeps a bar opposite the St. Charles Hotel, was fined $25 for selling liquor on Sunday.

Captain John S. Wise Withdraws.

Mr. John S. Wise yesterday withdrew as counsel for the Labor Herald in the Baughman Brothers boycott case. Mr. Wise and Hon. John W. Daniel were engaged by the Labor Herald, and the latter by the withdrawal of Mr. Wise, is left sole counsel for the paper.

Mr. C. V. Meredith is counsel for the "Boycott Committee."

No Household

ought to be without a bottle of that best of family remedies, Dr. David's Cough Syrup.

THE LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH FROM ALL SECTIONS TO "THE TIMES."

Daily Record of Fires, Accidents, and Other Crimes and Casualties.

Speaker Carlisle's Opponent and Possible Successor.

COVINGTON, November 3.—George H. Thobe, Carlisle's opponent, was born in Covington, Ky., forty-one years ago. He is married and has a family of six children, and owns his own modest little home in Covington. Mr. Thobe is a finisher in the Robert Mitchell Furniture Company in this city, where he has worked for the past ten years. He is a member of the order of the Knights of Labor.

Pat Collins Will Stick.

BOSTON, November 3.—General Collins was to-day shown the dispatch in the New York Sun announcing that he would resign his seat in Congress as soon as harmony was restored in his district. He said: "There is not a word of truth in it. It is nonsense. There is no such letter in existence as the one referred to. Such a report is outrageous. I am surprised how people invent such rumors, or rather lies. No, sir, the statement is not true."

An Undecided Course.

BOSTON, November 3.—General Corse says that he shall certainly not accept the postmastership before January, and possibly not at all. He is unable to say at the present time what his course will be.

A Shreveport Shooting.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., November 3.—Dr. T. G. Ford, of Shreveport, shot and killed John C. Kirkpatrick, a drug clerk of that town, at noon yesterday on Canal street, in this city. The tragedy grew out of the alleged betrayal of Dr. Ford's wife by Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Ford left her husband several months ago and came to this city with Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. Ford says she left Ford because of his vile habits and unbearable abuse. She had applied for a divorce and meanwhile accepted Kirkpatrick's attentions, which she claimed were perfectly honorable. All three of the parties are of good family.

The National Jockey Club.

IVY CITY, D. C., November 3.—The extra meeting of the National Jockey Club commenced to-day. The weather was fine, the track fast and the attendance large. First race—seven furlongs—Telle Dol won. Time, 1:27 1/4.

Second race, for two-year-olds—three-fourths of a mile—Relax won. Time, 1:16 1/4.

Third race—one mile and one-sixteenth—Boaz won. Time, 1:49.

Fourth race—one mile and one-eighth—Frank Ward won. Time, 1:55.

Fifth race—hurdle race, one mile and one-quarter, over five hurdles—Tennessee won. Time, 2:19.

Life on the Ocean Wave.

NEW YORK, November 3.—The American schooner Anna B. Hutcheson arrived to-day from Chagres, bringing six survivors of the crew of the Spanish bark Tres Auroras, from Barcelona for Havana, which was wrecked and sunk by a hurricane October 9th, carrying down a portion of the crew. The captain, mate, and four seamen, after drifting upon wreckage five days, suffering greatly from hunger, thirst, and exposure, were picked up by the Hutcheson near the Dry Tortugas. The rescued men will be sent home by the Spanish Consul.

A Fifty-Thousand-Dollar Fire.

PORTLAND, ME., November 3.—A fire in the shoe manufactory of Shaw, Goding & Co., on Middle-street, to-day completely gutted the building.

Most of the finished stock and some machinery were saved.

The loss will probably amount to $50,000 or more; well insured. Deering, Milliken & Co. were damaged about $5,000 by water; insured.

Quickly Sentenced.

LOWELL, MASS., November 3.—In the Superior Criminal Court to-day Mary J. Davis, the fourteen-year-old colored girl who attempted to poison a family in Wilmington last summer, was sentenced to seven years' imprisonment.

Charged With Arson.

SHOALS, IND., November 3.—A tramp giving his name as J. N. Haynes, of Dayton, O., has been arrested here charged with having set fire to the Pipher House, at Logansport. He will be taken to that place for a preliminary examination.

Cutting Scrapes.

Late last night Robert Wilkinson and Grant Ammons (both colored) had a row in the tenement house No. 1023 St. John street, which resulted in Ammons being cut twice in the arm and once in the jaw immediately under the ear.

Ammons was having a pair of shoes repaired, and requested Wilkinson to get the shoes from the shop and wear them for a short while so as to "break" them. Wilkinson got the shoes, and when found by Ammons with his shoes on, he (Ammons) denied that he ever told Wilkinson to get the shoes. One word led to another; from words they came to blows, with the above result.

The Lamb-Like Russian and the Bad Bulgarian.

ST. PETERSBURG, November 3.—To-day's issue of the Journal de St. Petersburg asserts that yesterday's announcement in the Official Messenger of General Kaulbars' refusal to notice the request of the Bulgarian Government for the names of Russians who had been molested in Bulgaria indicates that there is a limit to Russia's patience and moderation which an aversion to hold the Bulgarians responsible for the misdeeds of their rulers alone could have inspired. The Journal hopes that the Council of Regency will understand that they cannot persevere in their present course. General Kaulbars' counsels may perhaps induce the regents to comprehend the situation in the interests of the country.

BELFAST RIOTS.

BELFAST, November 3.—Rioting began at Carrick Hill while policemen were absent from the vicinity. On receiving information of the fighting a large force of police was dispatched to the spot, and after a short encounter dispersed the rioters.

Many of the latter were injured by stones hurled by the opposing factions. The excitement throughout the city is intense, and if it continues until night grave excesses, it is feared, will be perpetrated by mobs.

Selling Liquor on Sunday.

Charles Herbst and J. M. Campbell were reported at the First police station yesterday for selling liquor on Sunday. They will be before the Police Court this morning.
